

Rules for Life from the Qura'an

22 رمضان 1438

17.6.17

القاعدة الثانية والثلاثون

وَلَا يَخْلِفُ اللَّهُ وَعْدَهُ

And Allah will never fail in His promise

22:47

Allah will fulfill His promise, sooner or later. People may break their promises, but Allah will always fulfill them. You should not have any doubts about this.

In general, there are many promises in the Qura'an, connected to the means; they are not absolute. If you fulfill the means, the promise will be fulfilled, sooner or later.

✿ This principle is based on faith and trust that the promise will surely come to pass.

✿ As we go towards the Day of Judgement, there are so many quick changes in life. It is as if the earth is bidding farewell. These changes can sometimes generate doubts in the promises of Allah, and things look random. But nothing in life is random, there are checks and balances for everything.

✿ The closer the trial of Dajjal approaches, the more the other trials increase. When the person is in the trial, only someone with knowledge will realize he is being tested. It is only when the trial is over, that people realize it.

✿ Whatever Allah promised for the disbelievers will happen. The disbelievers face the da'awah with mockery and denial,

✿ This principle pours certainty and tranquility and peace upon the people. Don't believe your eyes and ears, believe what Allah says.

✿ You must take the means connected to the promise.

✿ Attachment to the dunya makes the person have weak faith in the fulfillment of the promises of Allah. When you think of dunya all the time, your belief in the unseen becomes weaker and weaker. Those who are concerned with the akhirah have a wrong belief in the promises of Allah. Lack of knowledge is also a means of weak faith.

🌸 Don't suggest a time and place for the fulfillment of the promises of Allah. This is misbehaving with Allah. Sometimes, when a person is making du'a for a while, and the fulfillment isn't seen, the person may become restless. We are human beings, and this can happen. But you must not let it remain, push the thought away. When you encounter a bottleneck, and feel you can't take it any more, the promise comes to fulfillment.

🌸 The promises of Allah are the truth, and the promises of the shaitan are falsehood. Continue on your way, relief is near.
