Flee to Allah first for any problem,
He is الأول, the First. Before seeking any means, turn to Allah. Make Allah your goal, He is الآخر, the Last. He has the final judgment. He completes His favours upon you. The names of Allah الأول and الآخر surround you in time. Don't make the small achievements in life your goal, make Allah your end goal.

Knowledge of Allah is the greatest treasure and favour. Allah is the One who brings the means to you. When you acquire knowledge, learn the Qura'an, make your the pleasure of Allah and Jannah. Don't incline to the means. Before the favours of anyone are the favours of Allah upon you. Your final destination is Allah.

You are a dot, squeezed between the names of Allah الظاهر الباطن, the Most Visible, the Most Hidden. Allah surrounds you in time and place. Allah rose over the throne, above the seventh heaven. But He is everywhere by His knowledge, seeing and hearing. This makes you feel protected and under supervision.

Allah is the Most Visible, He watches you from above. He observes and takes care of all His creation. He watches all your actions. He displays your affairs. Everything is visible for Allah. He can even see your veins and your blood running through them. When you don't believe in this, you are distracted and confused.

Allah is the Most Hidden, He is closer to you than anything else. You must take care of your inside, because Allah can see it. Don't fear anyone but Allah. One of the reasons for a bad end is when the inside of a person is corrupt, He thinks bad and has evil thoughts, which Allah can see. So you must constantly purify yourself. The one whose hidden and apparent self is the same is the truthful one. The hidden self is more important, because it cannot be seen, and it shows your sincerity.
